To the Seniors:

It has taken twelve years for you to reach this point in your school life. Which way you travel when you leave our doors will reflect on how successful we were in preparing you for the waiting world.

We hope you make us proud to have known you. Best wishes and good luck.

Mr. James Salisbury, Superintendent

Mr. William Tatham, Junior High

Board of Education

President, Robert Shafer; Vice President, Clyde Benroth; Clerk, Edna Rader.

The Board of Education members are elected by their fellow citizens to represent the community's wishes in educational planning and to oversee the operation of the schools. It is their duty to provide the best possible educational climate for the youth of the community.

The major function of the Board of Education is to create policy through planning, legislating, appraising, and interpreting.

Peter Smith, Eugene Leader, Dan Shoop.

SENIORS

Senior Class of 1970

We the Senior Class of 1970 have now completed 13 years of educational achievement and service to McComb High. One of our most admirable qualities is our class unity. Together we have created the greatest prom ever, set a unique scene for the Christmas Dance, supported our athletes in all sports, and took part in an attempt to retain our privileges as being seniors. We leave to the underclassmen our example of what class unity can do in hopes that they will use it to their advantage as we did.

JUNIORS

Class Of '71

The class of '71 hit a new peak of sophistication this year--they became JUNIORS. To prove themselves greater than the Seniors, they managed the concessions at four basketball games, sold more Christmas cards than they did, and had a prom just as great as theirs, if not better. The Juniors, also, succeeded in getting sets in their class rings. "Bombing around", though, surpassed these activities.

Class Of '72

Although they still have two years of hard work ahead of them, the sophomores can at least feel a superiority over the freshmen. They can dream about their junior year when they decorate the Prom and their senior year when they decorate for the Christmas Dance and, of course, graduation!

FRESHMEN

Class Of '73

This year's freshmen have spent most of the first semester learning to be high school students. This does not mean they have not taken part in school activities. A large majority of the class participates in band, choir, and the various organizations within the school. In addition, the class has aided in Homecoming festivities, and served on clean-up for the Christmas Dance. The freshmen are also proud to have their own basketball team. We wish them luck and hope they keep up the good work!

The Student Council, under the presidency of Dennis Ferrell and the advisorship of Mr. Bihn, was very active. The members attempted to make the Council more responsive to the desires of the student body and to make a more effective bond between the students and the administration.

The Council sponsored several activities during the year, the first of these being the Homecoming held in October. A Magazine Sale held in November was the means by which funds were raised to support the Council. A Christmas Dance highlighted the school's holiday festivities in December. In addition to these annual activities the Council was busy working in committees to establish a constitution and a handbook for next year.

Future Homemakers Of America

The goal of F.H.A. is to learn all parts of homemaking and ways in which to live a more useful and satisfying life. We try to live for a good home and family life for all. We encourage good will and leadership. Our international project this year is to support an orphan overseas. Our bake sale has helped raise money for this purpose.

The colors of the organization are red and white. Red is for courage and determination to succeed; white is for purity and integrity of youth. Our flower is a red rose and is symbolic of vibrant growing health, which contributes to happiness and efficiency in home and group life. Because of the willingness and cooperation of all the girls, our various projects are usually quite successful.

In this school year of 1969-1970, McComb High added quite a few new organizations to its extracurricular activities. One of these is the Girls' Athletic Association. The club is open to any McComb High School girl interested in athletics. The purpose of the club is to foster interest in physical education activities, to promote correct health habits, to encourage sportsmanship, and to develop poise, character, personality, and social well-being.

The G.A.A. girls took part in many activities in the club's first year. They started off with an initiation of all members. The club then organized a basketball team, which played a winning season with other county schools and concluded its season with an exhibition game with the women's faculty. Other teams were also organized in tumbling, volleyball, and track. Every girl in the club took part in the intramural tournaments. Awards were given out at the spring banquet.

As you can see, the McComb G.A.A. was very active, and every girl has a chance to participate and experience the fun and competition of athletics. We hope to expand our membership next year with the initiation of all interested upcoming freshmen.

The officers of the G.A.A. for 1969-1970 are as follows:

President . . . . . Ellen Ferrell
Vice President . . . . . Pat Stemen
Secretary . . . . . Connie Wolford
Treasurer . . . . . Carol Borgelt

Our FTA in action?

The purpose of the newly organized chapter of Future Teachers of America is to bring together those who plan to become teachers. In the meetings, the members, through the help of guest speakers, films, and panels, look at and discuss the different areas, both good and bad, of the teaching profession. Our FTA is named the Martha Ensign Chapter in honor of Mrs. Martha Ensign, a former teacher at McComb. They have received their charter from the national FTA organization and hope to become a well-established organization.

Panther Playhouse

You guys will never be stars.

Guess who's camera shy.

The blind leading the blind.

The Panther Playhouse Drama Club was formed this year in order to teach its members a better understanding of the world of dramatics. They studied the aspects of facial expression, movement, costuming, make-up, and lighting to learn their value in a good production.

Since the treasury was null, they sponsored several money-making projects. For homecoming, the club sold mums. These were a great success for their first year at McComb. A style show, held in March, brought tremendous profits to the club. The clothes were borrowed from The Paul Harris Stores and modeled by members of the club. The club planned to hold a car wash and a high school party before the end of the year.

To demonstrate their skills as production artists, the club held two assemblies. Their first was a religious Easter program. This program included instrumentalists, vocalists, scripture reading, and a short play. A program of a lighter vein was presented when the club performed "The Villain and the Toyshop". This play had everything from the hero and the villain to the good fairy.

All work and no play makes drama club members unhappy, so . . . . The club held three parties for themselves: a hayride, a Christmas party, and a picnic. They, also, took a field trip to B.G.S.U. to see play production from behind the scenes.

The club plans to continue in the future with better and bigger happenings. One of these happens to be a full scale musical. Well, time will tell.

"The Remarkable Incident At Carson Corners"

Shut up, Alice.

I'd like a bottle of aspirin, please.

Carson Corner's Court.

The Class of "71" presented "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners" as their Junior Class Play on November 21 and 22.

This play was different from most others given at McComb because of the plot of the story and the affect it gave. This play consisted of 13 boys and 13 girls. Having so many actors shows how difficult the play really was.

The play brought out points of true life, such as neglect of ones duties, as the students of Carson Corners held court to prove who was responsible for the death of a schoolmate. In the end it is shown that it could have been the fault of several different people, including the victim's father.

Ruth Lause and Patricia Spitsnaugle played several organ and piano duets and Denny Coffman, accompanied by Deb Rider, sang "What Is a Youth" before the play.

Did you do it, Miss Frank?

Our student director on the job.

French Banquet

Being in French Club isn't all work especially when the March Banquet at Mlle. Lause's home drew near. Each student prepared a French gourmet dish, but most of the students would agree that desserts were best of all. And why not?--since they had everything from Chocolate Mousse to Petits Fours. For the entertainment, charades were played. The rest of the evening was spent watching films of Mme. Warnock's French adventures in Paris.

Problems, Mrs. Warnock?

Gurgle, gurgle.

Hello folks, it's your old friend Dennis Newell.

Oh, come on Mickey, sign my autograph book.

I got it, I got it!

Parties are so much fun!

Judy, don't say things like that in public!

At your service.

Oh, my aching back!

Timber!

Latin Banquet

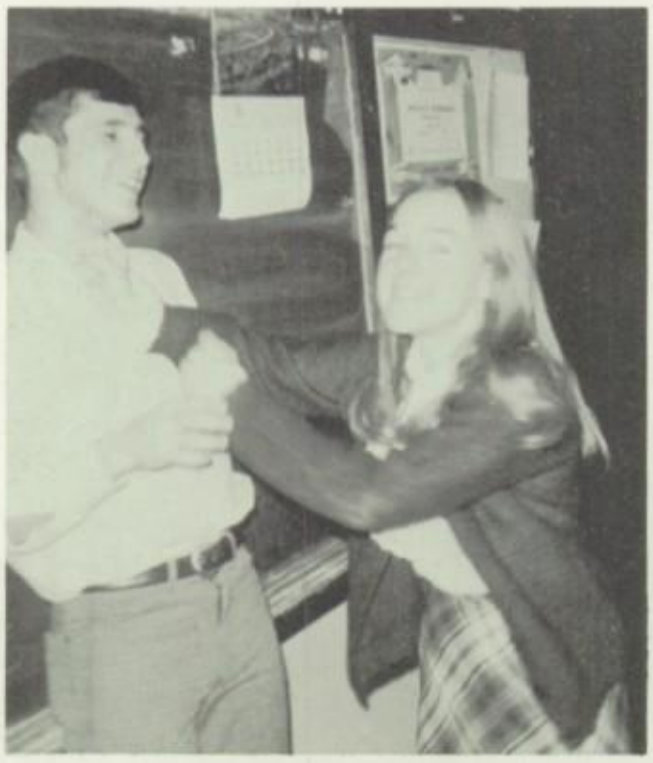
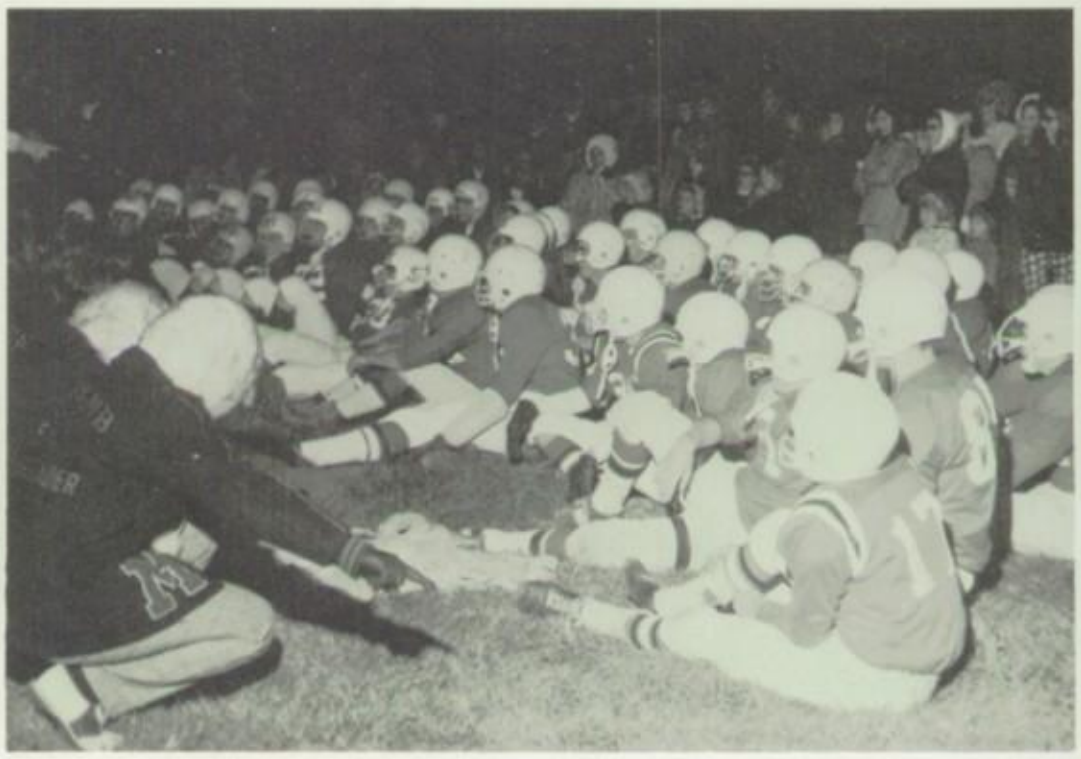
"Snoopy Goes to Rome" was the theme used for the Latin Banquet, held in the school cafeteria on March 26, 1969. The banquet was prepared by the second year Latin class. The first year Latin students served as slaves. The guests were entertained with songs, olive fights, and chariot races.

When in Rome do as the Romans do.



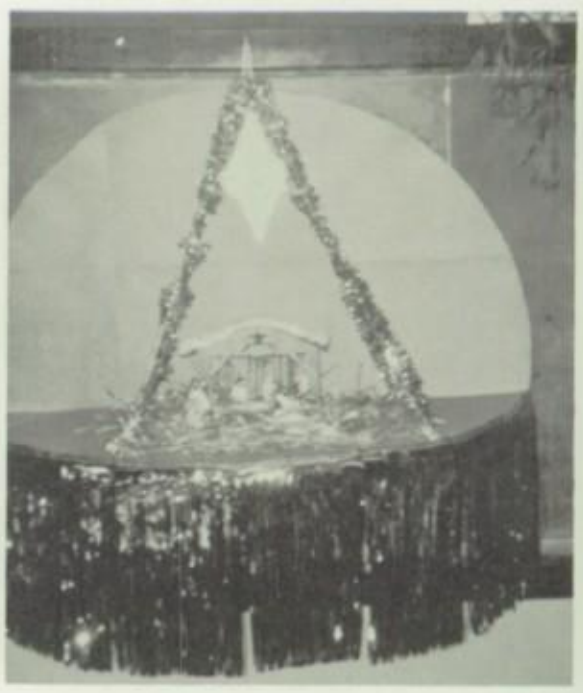
Watch this left hook!

Hit it Paula!



Hello little girl.

Jay on the warpath.



Winning Christmas decorations.

We've Got Spirit

Dearly Beloved . . .

Come on and clap, Milo!

What a groovy Homecoming supper!

Cremate those Hornets!

Go, Nance, go!

Let's not get carried away!

1969 Junior-Senior Prom

Guests descended a red carpet through a red and white canopy with candy cane pillars into a "Gay 90 Casino" at the Jr.-Sr. Prom held May 10 in the school auditorium. Gold tinsel streamers that were 8 feet long extended from a giant red ball as the featured center piece.

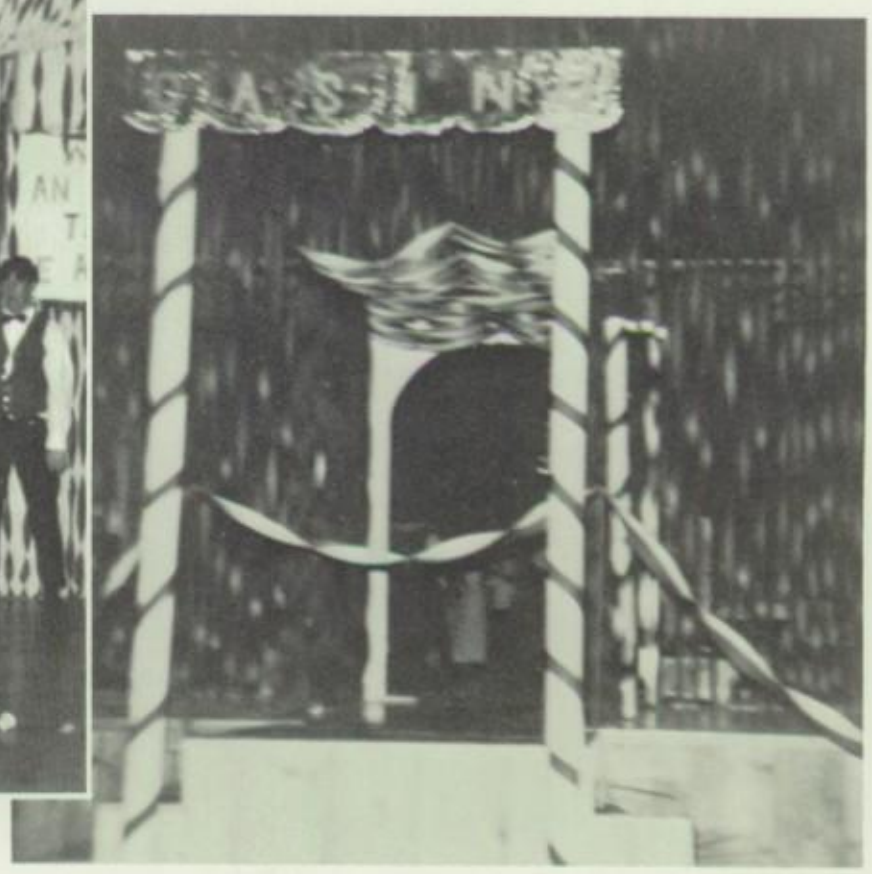
Festivities began at 6:30 p.m. with a banquet served to 180 guests by 20 sophomore servers. Ron Williamson began the program with opening remarks. Kevin Lauck responded. John Harden and Tom Shoemaker, members of the Peddlers of Time, presented a selection of songs on their guitars. Cheryl Hector read a lively interpretation of the seniors' futures. A comedy-singing team from Mt. Blanchard, "The Wayward Sons," also entertained with singing and impressions. Peggy Hermon closed the program with a reading to the seniors.

The dance began with music provided by the "Mach 4". Following the dance, activities began at the Findlay YMCA, to enjoy handball, basketball, ping pong, volleyball, swimming and trampoline.

The big night ended with a 4:30 a.m. breakfast.

Don't look so shocked, Ellen!

Ready and willing to serve you.



The entrance to the Casino.

There is a fly in my punch.

Where there is an open mind - there will always be a frontier.

The wheel of fortune.

Don't drop that on me.

I didn't drop that dish.

The Casino Tables.

Juniors Set The Scene

Is he under there?

What they won't do for beauty!

Who's there?

Tarzan?

What's going on?

You call that work?

We haven't changed a bit.

Want a cookie?

Such cute little girls.

Smile for mommy!

The Swinger.

School is so exciting!

The Graduates.
